

I love my NEW kitty
By Richard Tornello© 2006

My future stepdaughter's a bitch.
On her cat she'd throw the switch.
Cause it's old and cause it's slow down the hatch, Kitty would go.
In it's place would now show
a kitten a puppy or maybe more.

Taking this one to extremis
What might she do when her mom,
Gets old, gets stiff,
some what mindless,
or
worn away with no more play left?

In the home for old folks tucked
or pushed in front of one big truck?
